6. no regular rules have been framed to regulate the grant of these pensions.

Originally it was a life grant. During the administration of late Highness Krishnaraja Wodeyar Bahadur, on the death of ^{the} original grantees, portions of pensions & in some cases the whole were renewed to their descendants for the maintenance of the families.

7. of late it is usual to continue either a portion or full to the heirs of the deceased after ascertaining the condition in life of the heirs of the deceased pensioners from the Dy: Commr of the District where the pensioners the very same request of the petitioner has been refused in Flag M. 4-5-XII. No new reasons are urged excepting that he is very poor and has ^{even} no food for one or two days. Under these circumstances he must be informed that there is no reason to revise the order of 2-6-1911.

(Smt)

The young man is about 23 years old & ought to be able to support himself by some occupation or other. There is no reason to reconsider the order passed last year.
